

Vice President of Family & Community Engagement (VP-FCE):

Position Summary: The Vice President of Family and Community Engagement holds a significant leadership role within ConnectFamilias as a thought partner to the President/CEO (his/her direct supervisor). An ideal candidate should be able to both think broadly and strategically about the work and how it connects to the families and communities we serve. They should also be detail oriented and organized about the implementation and structures necessary to move the work forward. The position is ideal for a professional in the field of Clinical Social Work, Marriage & Family Therapy or Mental Health Counseling with a current State of Florida license who is experienced working with children and their families. Experience in designing, implementing and providing oversight of community-based prevention programs is also preferred. Applicant should be knowledgeable in areas of child development, family functioning, child abuse and neglect, and trauma informed care. Experience collaborating with cross-sector partners to support a seamlessly coordinated service delivery model that promotes culturally responsive high-quality 2-Generation approach to services a plus.

Key Experience & Qualifications:

- Provide day to day oversight of CF coordinated service model
- Direct supervision of master's level clinical interns (PH.D. a plus)
- Conduct internal QA/QI of programs to ensure implementation with fidelity
- Provide ongoing coaching of staff
- Work with CF leadership team to deepen and expand community partnerships
- Produce high-quality reports for funders, key stakeholders, and community of practice about CF programs our impact working with children and families
- Collaborate with research partners to co-design innovative service models or argument EBP models to improve quality care for children and families
- Present at community groups, meetings, and conferences.

At least two years of experience working with Hispanic/Latino community, experience working with Community Health Workers/ Promotoras de Salud a plus. Able to work in high tech environment. Some overnight travel to meetings/conferences may be necessary. Excellent verbal and written communication skills; Bilingual (English/Spanish) preferred.

Education: Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work, Marriage & Family Therapy or Mental Health Counseling with a current State of Florida license. Ph.D. preferred

Clearance: FL Background Criminal Screening & National FBI Background Criminal Screening (level 2)

Salary: Negotiable based on education and experience

Submit your resume to careers@ConnectFamilias.org and specify the Position Title in the subject line of the email

ConnectFamilias is an equal opportunity employer.